

Power, Duties, and Responsibilities

On June 17th, 2022, the Transportation Intermediaries Association (TIA) Foundation Board became the governing body for Transportation Intermediaries Association Institute for Research & Education, located at 1900 Duke Street, Suite 300, Alexandria, VA 22314.

The powers and duties of the Transportation Intermediaries Association Foundation Board includes:

The control, supervision and management of the financial, business, and education policies and affairs of Transportation Intermediaries Association Institute for Research & Education;

The development and regular updating of institutional master plans and compacts and the filing of same with the State Council of Higher Education For Virginia;

The preparation of annual budget requests for Transportation Intermediaries Association Institute for Research & Education, which relate directly to the mission, goals, and projections as found in the institutional master plans and the institutional compacts;

The review, at least every five years, of all academic programs offered at Transportation Intermediaries Association Institute for Research & Education;

The management of all personnel matters, including, but not limited to, employment, classification, compensation, and discipline for employees of Transportation Intermediaries Association Institute for Research & Education;

The solicitation and management of voluntary support, including financial contributions and support services, for Transportation Intermediaries Association Institute for Research & Education;

The appointment of the TIA Foundation Board Chairman of Transportation Intermediaries Association Institute for Research & Education;

The evaluation of performance for TIA Education department staff of Transportation Intermediaries Association Institute for Research & Education;

Entering into contracts or agreements with public schools, private schools, or private industry to provide technical, vocational, remedial, and customized training courses;

The delegation of power and control over the business affairs of the institution to the president or other administrative head of the Transportation Intermediaries Association Institute for Research & Education, as permitted by state law, in any case where it considers the delegation necessary and prudent in order to enable the institution to function in a proper and expeditious manner and to meet the requirements of its institutional compact.